TOPICS OF THE TIME.

DR. HONEYMAN, an Acadian naturalist, obtained a number of army worms

and kept them in a glass case to note their development. They turned into white moths, each having two white spots on the back.

WM. COULTER, the oldest railway conductor in the United States, having refused to wear the uniform and ticket

satchel recently ordered by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, will retire and build a $50,000 house.

The Freemasons of Iowa are very much exercised over a recent decision of the Grand Master that dancing in the lodges is inconsistent with the good of the craft. Two subordinate officers have been deprived of their positions

for acting in violation of the decision.

It has been decided by a Kansas judge that a man and wife go to a circus on a ticket that says "admit one"

—as by law they are considered "one."

This introduces a pecuniary consideration into the question of woman's rights which may silence even Susan B. Anthony.

The bottom of the steamship Great

Eastern was lately examined and found to be covered, below the water line, with an enormous multitude of mussels, clustered together in one dense and continuous deposit, in some places six inches thick. It was ascertained that their average weight per square foot was twenty or thirty pounds, which would make the weight of the entire mass

three hundred tons!

The London Standard says 612 men and 158 women were recently indicted

in Russia, of whom 265 were arrested for participating in the Socialist movement.

The Procurer-General, in the indictment, says Socialism is rapidly spreading throughout the empire. The most ardent propagandists of the movement belong to the upper class. Among the indicted are retired officers, professors, judges of the peace, officials of all grades, and several ladies of high family. He says the Socialists only await an opportunity,

such as a foreign war, to organize a revolution at home and put into practice their extravagant ideas.

NATURE has a role on a new and remarkably destructive engine of warfare

now undergoing artillery experiment in England known as the "water shell."

The chief merit of the invention—made by Mr. Abel—consists in filling an ordinary shell with water instead of an explosive agent. A small cylinder, containing from a quarter to a half ounce of gun-cotton and a little fulminate of mercury, is attached to the fuse and inserted into a water-filled shell, and, on firing, the almost incompressible character of water, the explosion of this seemingly trifling charge is said to produce more violent effects than have been attributed by any other means.

The explosion of the celluloid factory, at Newark, N. J., naturally creates not a little curiosity to learn what this new and apparently dangerous material is.

Celluloid, then, it may interest our readers to know, is a newly discovered substance, manufactured from several ingredients, chief among which are gun cotton and camphor, which possesses a high value on account of its close resemblance to coral, ivory, tortoise shell, amber, or malachite, according to preference. Not only is it susceptible to the richest and most delicate coloring,

but it is very light and, at the same time, very tough, and in these respects

superior to any known substance in use for a great variety of purposes. The coral imitations are so perfect that expert jewelers fail to detect its real character without close inspection. It is largely used in the manufacture of jewelry and fancy goods. Yet, with all these advantages, it has its disadvantages,

as has been proved by the terrible accident which has hurled a soul in eternity.

A QUARTER of a century ago the City of London resolved to provide itself with a system of drainage which would also keep the waters of the Thames un-defiled. During that time the work has progressed slowly but steadily, and not until three weeks ago it was thoroughly completion effected. The cost has been nearly $25,000,000. The system comprehends a number of sewers carried underground to the mouth of the Thames,

from which point the sewage is washed into the German Ocean. The work is justly regarded as one of the marvelous feats of engineering science, success being attained in the face of apparently unsurmountable obstacles. The original plan made due allowance for the future growth of the metropolis, and it is stated that the present drainage is such as will accommodate the entire city for many years to come, even though the streets

should be extended more rapidly than has been usual.

A DIRTBAUER and a doodlebug have had a deadly encounter near New Orleans. It should be understood, at the outset of the narration, that dirtbaubers are wasps that build mud nests, and that doodlebugs are a sort that burrow in the ground. There was a buzzing and the chronicler saw a wasp had gone into the bug's hole and been caught by his head in the bug's grip. Upon getting loose, the wasp rubbed his head and danced with pain. Then, after a moment of apparent close consideration, he cautiously approached the hole and began to scratch dust into it. Occasionally he peeped in to see the effect of his strategy.

This the hole was slowly filled, and the bug, compelled to keep on top of the dust or smother, was gradually brought near the surface. At length the bug's head appeared in sight, and the wasp, quickly pouncing upon it, killed his antagonist.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

A Timely Article.

The Courier-Journal of the 20th inst., has a timely and thoughtful article under the head of "Business Lessons." It will repay perusal by all concerned. It does seem a little strange that men who have had the wisdom and tact to accumulate large fortunes, have so little good sense to enable them to take care of it. It seems stranger still, that the directors of a moneyed institution will allow those whose duty it is to handle the funds, and keep the accounts, to go on from month to month, and year to year, pilfering and stealing, making false entries, and performing "irregularities," when, if, that supervision of the accounts and books were had from time to time, by monthly or quarterly examinations, by an "expert" who has had nothing to do with them, this whole system of fraud, treachery, and general rascality, would receive a decided "check." Men who are so loose in the management of their business, scarcely deserve the sympathy of the public when disaster comes upon them, and they should be held to strictly account to innocent depositors who have entrusted to their management and keeping the sums of money placed so confidently in their vaults. Against the arts and villainy of the midnight burglar, or the murderous assaults of the highway robber and assassin, there is, frequently, no security. In the case of the Columbia and Huntington bank robberies, the bank officers and other suffering parties have the sympathy of the public. The most careful and astute officer could not foresee the assault; but in the case of the Gas Company and Planters Bank, at Louisville, the matter is far different. We have "had our say," and for our gratuitous suggestions, no charge is made. A word to the wise is sufficient. Surely, enough has been made manifest within the last four or five months, to teach a wholesome lesson. Will it be heeded, or will men, with heavy and important trusts, still be permitted to steal, and make false entries, in order to cover up their tracks? We shall see.

South Pacific Railroad.

THE Richmond, Va., daily Enquirer, has an able article on the question of building a railroad from St. Louis to San Francisco. There is to be a grand Convention at St. Louis, in November, in which all the Southern States, including Virginia, Maryland and Kentucky, will be represented.—The object of that Convention will be to adopt such measures as will finally lead to the building of a competing line to the Pacific slope. The Northern Pacific road is a monstrous monopoly. It grinds the people to powder, by excessive rates of travel and freight. The object is to put a check upon this wholesale extortion. Financially, and commercially, the South and West must take care of themselves. Eastern capitalists have had full sway too long. The more rope you give them, the more they will demand. The reports made by Civil Engineers who have examined the route over which it is proposed to build the Southern Pacific road, are very favorable. This road would not be obstructed by snow and ice, at any time in the year. More than this, it would pass through a fertile region of our country, where there are never any such hindrances as snow and ice. The completion of the Knoxville Branch road, and the Big Sandy road, would place both Old and West Virginia, in direct connection with this Southern route, and trade and travel would gravitate in that direction. We are assured that those who have this enterprise in charge, mean business, and the day is not far distant, when the road will be finished.

M. T. Chrisman.

The death of Michael T. Chrisman, Clerk of the Boyle Circuit Court, which occurred very suddenly and unexpectedly, on Tuesday last, was a great surprise to his friends and acquaintances. He was thought to be in unusual good health, perhaps, better than he had enjoyed for a year or two. He had been afflicted with a chronic, though, not usually, fatal disease, for many years, but his death was not caused from that complaint. All who knew Mr. Chrisman, will deplore his loss. He had been connected with the Circuit Court Clerks' office, in the county of Boyle, for many years—was always popular with the people, and no one could defeat him for the position which he held so long. His genial smile, and happy jests, made all familiar with him. He will be sadly missed by those who knew him best, and appreciated him most. He leaves several children, and many friends, to mourn his loss.

He died of apoplexy, as we learn from his nephew, Judge M. C. Saufley.

IMMENSE floods have been sent down upon the several States in the South, lately. Several towns on the lower Mississippi, have been inundated to the depth of three to four feet. Great destruction of property was the result, and a number of lives were lost.

SOME of the newspapers are giving Robert Bonner, fits, because he buys up all the best and fleetest trotters in the country, and retires them to private life, to be used by himself only, thus depriving the lovers of the trotting turf, of much of the pleasure they would enjoy, were those animals retained by those who would trot them before the public. It is charged, too, that Bonner is a tyrant among his animals, and that if they don't "git up and git" to suit his fastidious taste, he will whip them in a trot, for miles, even if it kills them. It is reported that he drove and whipped one of his fine horses to death, simply, because the poor dumb brute did not move to his notion. We can hardly believe this report of one who loves a good horse as well as Mr. Bonner does, but, if it is true, he does not deserve to draw the reins over such a horse as Dexter or Startle.

GAME LAW.—The Statute law of this State, prohibits any one from hunting partridges before the first day of October, and after the first day of February, in each year—that is, you cannot hunt them between the first day of February and October first.—After next Saturday, (to-morrow) week, you can kill as many of them as you find, provided you are a good shot, like Capt. Bogardus or Will. Price. A violation of the law subjects you to a fine of $5 for each bird killed, and the law should be rigidly enforced.

STEALING the livery of Heaven to serve the Devil in, has been practiced since the world began, and will continue. It is said that the "bank robbers" stopped over Sunday, near Huntington, West Va., at the house of a farmer, in the guise of inoffensive cattle dealers; stating to their host that they had religious scruples about traveling on the Lord's Day. They also, read their Bibles all day, and appeared to be exceedingly sanctimonious and self-righteous. There are more wolves in sheep's clothing than we have any idea of.

ODD FELLOWS.—The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the United States, is in session at Indianapolis, Indiana, with Grand Sire, M. J. Durham, of Kentucky, presiding. The various Lodges in this country and Europe, are reported to be in a very flourishing condition. The Order is co-extensive with civilization, and is rapidly increasing everywhere. Many prominent members, among them Vice President Colfax, and O. P. Morton, of Indiana, are in attendance at the present meeting.

It is said that the Cyclone which passed over Indianola, Texas, the other day, destroyed the town almost entirely. Only five business houses in the town were saved. Many persons were drowned, and their dead bodies were found floating twenty miles along the beach. One common ruin seems to have visited all. Such a terrible disaster has not been recorded during the history of Texas. Several other towns down there, were almost entirely destroyed.

The fast mail train which was recently started from the East to the West and South, made the marvelous time of five miles in four minutes on a part of the road, and a mile a minute from Vandalia to East St. Louis. We see no necessity for such rapid transit, and one of these days, the papers will have to record a terrible wreck of cars and loss of life and limb. No human being should desire to travel over 35 miles an hour, and when this time is exceeded, the danger is great.

THE 13th of October draweth nigh. On that day the Democracy of Ohio will marshal their forces and go forth to meet the hosts of Radicalism. That a grand triumph awaits the "unterrified," no one can doubt, who has posted himself on the Ohio campaign.—This will be the most important election which will be held between now and the Presidential race in 1876. On the result of that race, depends, in a large measure, the success of the Democratic party next year.

It is said that England will have to import about 75,000,000 bushels of wheat this year. Kansas can supply one-fifth of the amount from her surplus of this year's crop. Five or six other Western States can supply the balance. We can feed the whole civilized world, if necessary, for two years, even though, two successive crops should fail. The days of famine, if not of war and pestilence, have ended.

THE New York Evening Post, one of the ablest of the Eastern dailies, says that Gen. Wm. Preston, "the man who delivered the furious war speech in Virginia, recently, made an able argument on the tariff and finance questions, at Louisville, the other day." It was not Gen. William Preston, who delivered the speech in Virginia, but it was Gen. John S. Preston, who is not even a kissman of our Kentucky Preston, as we are informed.

CARL SCHURZ got mad because the Democrats of the Missouri Legislature would not re-elect him to the Senate last winter, and went off to Europe to cool his fevered brain. He came back recently, and to take revenge upon the party, intends stamping the State of Ohio, in the interest of the Radicals.

COL. GEO. M. ADAMS, the gallant young Democrat, who redeemed the Mountain Congressional District from Radicalism, and represented it for several terms in Congress, is highly spoken of as a candidate for the Clerkship of the Lower House of Congress, next session. He deserves the place, and we believe he will get it without much of a struggle.

A CERTAIN Radical sheet says that the Republican candidate for Governor in California, was defeated because there was an Independent candidate on the track besides a Democrat. How could that have been, when the Democrat received more votes than both of them? Such talk as that, is all bosh.

MR. WATTERSON, of the Courier-Journal, says "there never has been an hour of a minute, that we would not have walked a hundred miles, and whipped twice our weight in wild cats, to secure the re-election of Governor Allen, of Ohio." And yet, the Cincinnati Enquirer, and John Noble, are not happy.

M. KEAN, one of the Proprietors of the famous Louisville Hotel, was stricken with paralysis, last Tuesday, and is now in a dangerous condition. Hopes are entertained of his recovery, but he may not survive the attack.

THE machinery of our State Government, under Governor McCreary, is running on as smoothly as though he had been in that office for many years. We know that he would make Kentucky a good Governor.

In all sincerity, we ask our distinguished friend, the able editor of the Courier-Journal, to tell his readers, and the rest of mankind, why he thinks that "inflation means repudiation?"

THE Massachusetts Democratic Convention, which met last Wednesday, declared in favor of a "hard money" platform. This was wrong in the "Old Bay State." Money did it.

If the Columbia Spectator can be believed, that town is on the "improve," for the Spectator says one of their citizens has actually dug a "new" well. Hail, Columbia!

EX-GOVERNOR KING, of Paducah, Ky., is in the far West, on a trip of pleasure. He passed through Kansas, and pronounces it the "greatest agricultural State in the Union."

POST MASTER General Jewel, has appointed a Democrat Post Master at Jacksonville, Ala., because there was not a Radical in the place fit to hold the office.

THE Base Ball season is drawing to a close. All hearts rejoice at the fact. Now, if they would quit writing about Cardinal McClosky, our cup of happiness would be full.

THE election of a new Board of Directors and other officers of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, will be held in Louisville in the early part of next month.

THE Kentucky Legislature will convene on the last day of this year, hence, our Representatives will have the Christmas holidays.

THE Grand Lodge of Kentucky Masons, will convene in October, at Louisville.

UNPRECEDENTED RATTLE-SNAKE TALE.—Mr. Wm. Ballock, living on the waters of Trace Fork creek, some days ago, discovered a rattlesnake near an old hollow log, and made battle with it—the snake running into the log. On entering the log there was a general slugging and whining in there. Mr. Ballock tore open the log and killed twenty-five rattlesnakes, having from one to thirteen buttons. A bystander was paralyzed with astonishment. We hold Mr. Jas. Gilpin, responsible for the above.

MR. WM. H. HATYER, Thos. and Sylvanus Hatter, and also Mr. John Crew, H. T. Douglas, and Marion Durham, are on the eve of starting to Texas. They go by wagons, and are well equipped for the journey.

LAND, STOCK, AND CROP ITEMS.

TRADERS report trade rather dull in all lines, since our last issue. The reason assigned, being that stock is pretty well sold out and shipped.

Egypt, King Alfonso, and Katie Pearce won the races at Louisville, on Monday last. The races this week, are as exciting and well attended, as they were in the Spring.

BOB WOOLLEY, Vagrant, and Egypt, captured the stakes at the Louisville races on Wednesday last. The animal, Egypt, has won several races at Lexington and Louisville, lately.

CLEMENS G., Arizona, and Fair Play, were the winners at the Louisville races last Tuesday. We note that Sheriff W. B. Withers, of this county, came in one of winning the race, as his mare was second in the fight. The time made was said to be very fine.

CATTLE AND MULES.—I have fifty good, smooth steers, from two to six years old—also, eight well broke mares, about 15 hands high, from four to six years old, all in fair order, that I wish to sell.

L. A. LANIER.

G. W. ALFORD, bought 230 sheep, of Greenup Jones, of this county, last Monday, for which he paid $3 per head. He also bought 270 head at Danville, on the same day, at $2.50 per head. He bought a bunch of 30 yearling cattle at Danville, on Monday, at 41 cents. This stock is all intended for the Lexington and Winchester markets. Mr. Alford is a liberal trader.

It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderful cures are astonishing to every one that use it. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sold by Bohon & Stagg, Main street, Stanford, Ky.

HOME JOTTINGS.

W. T. GREEN, living near Walnut Flat, is very ill with Intermitent fever.

ELDER R. D. PEAY, of Henderson, Ky., will preach in the Baptist Church, next Monday night.

MRS. TARRANT's school at Crab Orchard, opened with about sixty students last Monday week.

TAN-BARK, lumber, coal, and live stock, pass over the Knoxville road, every day, in vast quantities.

SUMMER grapes in the Knobs are larger, finer, and sweeter than we have ever seen them, and the crop is very abundant.

REMEMBER the New York Store when you come to town. Buy there once, and you will buy nowhere else, thereafter.

JOE NEWLAND and James Menefee, left here last Thursday, for Peabody, Kansas, where they will make their future home.

GREENWALD, of the New York Store, says he has come to stay as long as the people need good and cheap goods. That means all the time.

MR. J. N. DAVIS is now putting on the finishing touches to his elegant and convenient dwelling-house on the corner of First and Lancaster Streets.

From the way in which our city fathers are having our Streets repaired, we are assured that pedestrians will have better walking the coming winter.

From our friends in the country, we learn that the frost of the last few nights, did but little, if any damage, to the growing crops, some of which have not yet matured.

GREENWALD means business. He declares that if he can't sell goods at a low profit, he will sell at cost, rather than have any one who calls, go away and buy elsewhere.

We invite all of our citizens in town and country, and all who come here on a visit, to give the New York Store a call. You would be amazed at finding such a splendid stock of goods.

THE Presbyterian Church (Southern), at Stanford, is without a Pastor at present. We have not learned whether they will supply themselves with a minister or not, but presume that they will.

RAILROAD.—The time of the arrival of the trains has been changed for the better, decidedly. The mail from Louisville, now arrives at 2:05 p. m., instead of 3:15. The down train arrives as usual.

PHYSICIANS report that there is a considerable number of remittent and intermittent fevers in this county, but none of them serious. This was expected, from the long rains of the past Summer.

J. W. GILMAN, with his family, left here for Richmond, Va., the other day. Mr. G. came here several years since, from Lynchburg, Va. He said before leaving, that he might return to Kentucky before long.

THERE are two stories in the New York Store. If you don't find what you want on the first floor, you can get it up stairs, because Greenwald is determined to keep everything on hand that the people want.

SOME of our Lancaster old folks have come to Louisville. We learn from the Courier-Journal, that Mr. C. C. Storms and Mrs. Malinda Collier, of Lancaster, were married at the Collier House, on the 21st inst.

MR. BARROW, after having exhausted his own supply of ice, sent to Louisville for the Lake article, and has been, for several weeks past, supplying his customers with that kind. His enterprise is commendable.

THE New York Store is nearly opposite the "Myers House," on Main Street, in Stanford. We are in earnest, when we say that you will consult your best interest if you will examine Mr. Greenwald's goods, and learn the prices, before buying elsewhere.

THE Lincoln Circuit Court will begin on the 3d Monday in next month. The docket will not be very large, and our Attorneys hope to be able to clear the old cases off to a great extent. Such a thing would greatly benefit litigants and others.

ANDY YATES was notified by the Town Marshal, that he had broken the peace of the Commonwealth, and was cited to appear before a Justice for trial, last Wednesday. With the fear of that ball and chain before his eyes, he lit out for parts unknown.

We congratulate our neighbors of Danville, on their prospect for "light—more light." Their Gas Works will be erected during the coming year. Unfortunately, they have no natural facilities for the erection of Water Works like we enjoy, else they would add them also, to their enterprises.

SERIOUS CUTTING.—We learn that a serious difficulty occurred at the Walnut Flat, in this county, last Wednesday morning, between a man named Root, and one named Russell. They quarreled, and Root cut, or cut at Russell, when Russell struck Root with a hatchet, inflicting a dangerous wound in the side.

DEED.—At Somerset, Ky., on Wednesday, of flux, Mr. C. J. Huffaker, aged about 22 years. Mr. Huffaker was the junior partner of the firm of Richard and Huffaker, Druggists. He was very popular with all who knew him, and will be greatly missed from the social and business circles of the locality in which he lived.

HOMICIDE.—Alex. Maupin, son of Wash Maupin, died, was shot and almost instantly killed, on Sunday last, by Robert Ballew, at Kingston, Madison county, over a difference in a long trail. Young Maupin was about 21 years of age, and highly respected. This is one more terrible result from carrying a deadly weapon.

HAYDEN BROS. are now receiving daily, by Express and freight, a magnificent stock of goods for the Fall and Winter trade. Mr. E. B. Hayden, the senior member of the firm, is now in the Eastern cities, buying the stock, and as he pays cash, will be able to sell at very low rates. Call in and examine their goods as they arrive.

PROF. MYERS, Principal of the Male Seminary here, has employed a native of Athens, Greece, to teach the Greek language in all of its purity, to those who attend his school and study that difficult language. He seems to be a finished scholar, and speaks the English tongue with remarkable fluency, considering his short residence in this country.

THE man Frost, who killed young Crum, at Danville, some years ago, was tried at the present term of the Boyle Circuit Court, and sentenced to two years in the State Prison. The verdict was a surprise to him, as he expected to be found not guilty. The Jury, however, thought otherwise, and he will have to work out the penalty of his crime.

N. B. TEVIS, of the Great Clothing Emporium, has received, and is still receiving large accessions to his already immense Stock of Goods.—Not only clothing, but trunks, valises, hats, caps, and a great variety of other goods, at low prices, are kept on hand at all times. A better Store in this line of goods cannot be found elsewhere.

JIM EDE, BRUCE, has one of the best, most comfortable, and convenient Livery Stables in the country. His stock, fat horses, and elegant buggies, and other vehicles, cannot be excelled. More than this, Bruce will charge you a moderate price, and give you a splendid "turnout." Don't take our word, but try him once, and judge for yourself.

FROM present indications, all our citizens are living in their winter supply of coal. All the carts and wagons about town, are busy all day, hauling the "bituminous" from the depot to the various coal bins around town. The fire is right. After while the price of coal may rise, and then those who put the matter off for a "more convenient season," will regret their delay.

MR. OSEY, President of the Huntington Bank, which was robbed recently, passed through our town the other day, en route to Louisville and home. He did not care to foot it, or ride back on a horse, though the wilderness to his home. He expressed himself highly gratified at the result of the chase of the bank robbers, and expresses the belief that the other three will be caught.

FROM his card in this issue, it will be seen that Mr. S. Hardin, late of Crab Orchard, has taken charge of the "Pendleton House," in Stanford, and now calls it the "Stanford Hotel." All who know Mr. Hardin, and his wife, will admit that they know how to run a hotel, and please the public. Try the "Stanford Hotel" one time, and you will see the truth of the statement.

JACK FROST made his first appearance this season, on the night of the 20th inst. Overcast by day, and heavy blankets at night, were in requisition, and they were decidedly comfortable. The good news indicates, according to the weather prophet, that the coming winter will be long and severe. Prof. Tice, the modern weather witch, predicts the same thing. He has never disappointed us yet.

WE inform our Casey and Pulaski county readers, that they can find a good market here, for winter apples that are sound enough, to keep until after Christmas, at prices varying from 60 cents, to $1 a bushel, and they can dispose of such as are suitable for immediate use as cooking or eating apples, and which will not keep long, at prices varying from 50 cents to 75 cents, a bushel. Five hundred bushels could be sold here.

THE Lincoln County Court of Claims, will convene on the second Monday in next month. Hence, all persons who have claims on the county, are pressed to the Court at that time, would do well to have them properly made out and certified, in cases requiring a certificate, as it often happens that some are not allowed for the want of such authentication. The claims to be allowed will not amount to as much, we learn, as heretofore.

IMPROVEMENTS upon our public thoroughfares about and in town, are still going on. Our Board of Trustees are having a culvert made from Main to Water Street, and are having tile drains laid placed in the bottom of the streets. This is better than the old style stone culverts, and it is not so apt to fill up with mud, gravel, and debris. Clear drains is of the first importance to any city, town, or village, and Stanford has natural advantages in this respect, being situated on the Southern slope of a long ridge. Water never accumulates and stands stagnant here. Hence, our town is, and has ever been, free from epidemic and fevers of any kind.

MARRIED.—On the 22d inst., near Richmond, Ky., by Rev. Mr. Helm, Walter G. Saunders, of this place, to Miss Kate Broadbent, of Madison county. Attendants—A. A. McKinney, of Stanford, and Miss Martin Broston; John Burton and Miss Barlow. We congratulate our young friends, who, as he has certainly gained a valuable prize in the Lottery of life. May their pathway be ever strewn with unfading flowers. The happy couple left on a bridal tour by the way of Louisville to Cincinnati.

A NEW HOUSE.—Mr. George D. Wearen, with his characteristic energy, has already begun the erection of another new brick business house, on the corner of Main and Depot Streets. He expects to complete it ready for occupancy by himself and J. W. McAllister, as a Grocery establishment, by the 10th of November, if not sooner. This building will fill the entire centre square on the North side of Main street. Our town is rapidly improving, and, ere long, every available space will be occupied by a building.

DEATH ON THE RAIL.—A young man named Martin Boyd, a brakeman on the Knoxville Branch Road, was killed near Richmond Junction, last Monday morning. The facts, as we learn them, are, that Mr. Boyd, got his leg entangled in the bell-cord, which he had just loosened, and fell between the cars while they were in motion, and just before the train reached the Junction. He was horribly mutilated. His age was about 20 years. His relations live near Livingston, at the terminus of the road. He has a brother on the same train, who is also a brakeman.

ELEGANCE, ease, durability, safety, speed, get-up and tidiness—all combined with cheapness, and plenty of accommodation at Portman & Owens' Livery Stable. Their horses are all fat, sleek, fresh, and well-trained; their vehicles are new, elegant and splendidly caparisoned; their stable and office are convenient, and eligible at all hours, day and night. These are a few reasons why they should receive the bulk of public patronage. It is worth three-dollars and a-half to hear Joe discuss that turnout, and pedigree that fiery, untamed steed, as he passes over the strings, and bids you travel lively and tarry long. Try Joe, everybody.

THE ROBBER.—The man, supposed to be Jesse James, and who was shot at Pine Hill, last week, by W. R. Dillon, died last Sunday evening, and was buried near Pine Hill. Mr. Dillon and his brother Joe, have done a noble deed, and rid the whole country of one dangerous and blood-thirsty outlaw. A few more such men as the Dillons, scattered around over the country, would make bank and railroad robbing, a very precarious business for these daring scoundrels, and they would eventually put a stop to it. We hope they will be able to secure the reward which is said to have been offered in Missouri, for one, or all, of this gang of highwaymen.

THE folly, not to say the careless and reckless habit of leaving a horse unattended at any time, and even for a moment, was demonstrated the other day, for the second time lately, which fully a reporter of the Journal was an eye witness. A man drove up to a farm house in a buggy, and left his animal untied. A little girl was left to hold the reins. The father had not been absent five minutes, before a flock of geese came along flapping their wings and screaming, the animal became frightened and dashed off frantically. Fortunately, a stalwart man caught the reins and checked the horse in time to prevent the overturning of the buggy down an embankment. But for this fact, we might have had a serious accident to record.

LESS than $2,000 would be required to lay tile drain pipe, similar to that which our Trustees are putting into culverts, from the spring on the Helm farm, to the centre of our town, and it would not need repairs in many years. Pure, good water, is essential to health, and this simple pipe would afford an abundance for all our citizens. The money expended in digging wells and keeping them in repair, would nearly pay for this inexhaustible supply of good water as ever ran from the earth. Many of our citizens, during a dry season, have to haul water a mile or more, and water that stands in barrels, during warm weather, remains pure but a short time. We hope some enterprising citizen will make a move in the matter of supplying our town with water in the mode herein indicated. The question has been partially discussed by our citizens and by the Board of Trustees, but no definite conclusion has been arrived at.

THE sad accident which we detail in another part of our present issue, and which resulted in the death of a most estimable young man on the 20th, by falling from the train, should admonish all railroad employees, and others who may travel on cars, of the danger attending the passage from one car to another. People become too careless in the matter, and the wonder is, not that this young man was killed, but that such accidents do not occur almost every day. Many persons pass continually, from car to car, while they are in motion just because they are in a hurry to do so, and not because business requires it of them. In the case of poor Boyd, duty compelled him to be on the platform of the cars, but in all probability, had he been more careful of his footing, while in a position so dangerous, he might not have lost his life. We trust that the lesson taught, though a terrible one, will cause all of us to be more careful of our life or limbs.

GARRARD COUNTY NEWS.

LAUREL.—We had the pleasure of being one of a party that was invited around to Colonel Letcher's night, last Friday night, and spent one of the most pleasant evenings that has been ours to enjoy for "lo, these many days." Wit, poetry, and literature, held high carnival, until late candle light, when we reluctantly bid our very entertaining and polite host, good night.

THE following persons left here this morning for the Exposition, viz: W. R. Robinson and wife, John F. White, Mat Walton and Wm. Ray. The latter two gentlemen will visit Louisville, Cincinnati, and Mason county, the home of Mr. Walton, and be absent about two weeks.

ON account of press of business, we were unable to attend the Granger's picnic, at Camp Dick Robinson, last week—but understand that it was a perfect success, especially the dinner, and everything went off in real granger style. The National Bank system, Monopolies, and "Patents," were the three major topics of the day, so "is said, and each one was thoroughly discussed.

THE case of Wm. Sellers vs. E. D. Kennedy, and also same vs. Walter G. Saunders, and others, the latter being for damages for the burning of his (Sellers) house, in Aug. 74, will be heard in the United States Court, at Louisville, next month. The case will be watched with interest by a great many people, as it will expose the causes that led to this riot here, in August 1874. The Attorneys for the Defendants, Messrs. Burdett & Hopper, of this place, will commence taking proof here, in a few days.

PULASKI COUNTY NEWS.

SUMMER.—After a short nap, we propose to awake, temporarily, at least. We cannot hope to hide our whereabouts very successfully, as in days gone by, and neither do we care to do so, for we have as little fear of open injury, when we are known, as otherwise.—Some have thought it rather peculiar for our correspondent to take the liberty of using the editor's "we." One reason we have for the said use, is, that a modest "we," is preferable to immodest egoism.

DEATHS are of frequent occurrence in our town & community, of late. Lydia, a daughter of Jno. W. Hall, died here yesterday evening, after a lingering illness, of remittent fever. Mr. Walden, of the Christian Church, conducted the funeral services to-day. A small child of T. Q. Jasper, died Saturday, of flux.

DISEASES of all kinds that are now prevailing, appear to be of a very malignant character, and beyond the control of the medical practitioners. C. J. Huffaker, of Richmond & Huffaker, Druggists, is now lying very low, with flux, and it is feared he will not recover. Mr. Eben Milton, who is very aged, is also, in very poor health.—He has endured much affliction in this life, but, sustained by the hand of God, he has borne all with great Christian meekness.

MARRIAGE and giving in marriage, is a thing much heard of, here, lately. We cannot attempt to enumerate the fifteen or twenty that lately occurred, but will hint, that we know of a young Editor who would like to pass himself off as a coin of genuine metal, giving some young lady a chance to (w) ring—his ears. We would be glad to announce that he had found one who was willing to settle him.

RAILROAD work, we learn, soon to begin on the Barker works. Parker, Ballou & Co., have the work offered to them, and those gentlemen seem, very inclined to undertake it at the figures heretofore proposed. The starting of this work will be the means of giving many laboring men employment, where they would otherwise, be without such means. We know this company to be composed of good, native born men, upon whom our citizens can rely.

RELIGIOUS affairs are more prosperous here, now, than for sometime past, and the morals of the town and vicinity, are much better, since we are rid of the rascally vagabonds who have bothered us during the past two years. Finished railroads may be a blessing to a country, but we do avow that while in process of construction, this one has done as much corruption to these parts, as could well exist in so small a place.

GOOD Templars have kept the Temperance flame alive, until our county has as little intemperance within her borders as any other within the State. It is getting very dissonant and unpopular, to be caught selling the poisonous liquid. Our people have almost forgotten the significance of "Saloon," and "Grocery," for they are buried beneath their own fragments, and upon the ruins, have been erected, "Drug Store," "Hotel" and "Cider."

LAST week, C. R. Love and G. P. Porch, officers of Internal Revenue in this county, captured a barrel of contraband whisky—also, one of brandy, that were not in the condition required by law. The two barrels were held until communication was had with the Collector. He ordered them released, but upon what grounds, we do not know; yet, we, however, would stand far back in the Court room, and with our humble bow, modestly ask—if this case was not tried by hearing only part of the evidence—and it is not more likely to be a fact, that an officer of the law is a better witness than the criminal, before the Court. We would not censure any one, for being too hasty, unless we thought there was just cause, but we can but think, that if this matter is reconsidered, and the matter referred out, it will be manifest that the rat that gnawed the Revenue Stamp off of one of the barrels had no tail.

WES. McFERRIS, lies in jail under a charge of killing a negro on Cummings' work.

A MR. BRUCH, has lately been placed in jail, charged with shooting at Wm. Jackson. Wm. Jackson was tried here last week for procuring an "order" from a railroad man, by the use of a pistol, a shot gun, and broad threats—found guilty of assault, and gave his hundred dollar bail bond. He was then re-arrested, and will be tried to-day, for bad behavior at somebody's house.

WE notice in the Somerset Reporter, that one "Purgator" is a little sore from the effects of a lashing he received at the hands of "Purgator" through the columns of the Interior. We can't see why that purgator gentleman should include our humble self in his broad sweep, unless it be, that he is smarting from an old sore, caused by some thrust we have heretofore made at his wicked and moral rottenness. We defy any man to find where we have ever assaulted any one while doing that which a good conscience could approve. We began months ago, to fight the evils then prevailing in our town and county, and though we were then unknown, we can now, and did then, feel assured that our humble efforts were sanctioned by all the pure and good of the community. We are well aware of the number of enemies we had, who were then writing in the wall of their own moral corruption, but we remember that Clay, said—"I would rather be right, than be President."

WE had some frost here last night, but a fog preserved vegetation,—a very heavy one.

COUNTY COURT of this week, gives but little news or food for comment.

CIRCUIT COURT begins here next Monday, and we feel hopeful that Judge Owens, and Attorney Denny, will mete out ample justice to all offenders of the law. We feel sure that the Grand Jury, by proper vigilance, can bring any violator of the law before the Court, whose business it is to see that men who go beyond the bounds of law, are punished to the extent of that law.
